

CONSTITUTION & BY-LAWS OF THE INTERNATIONAL COTTON GENOMICS INITIATIVE (ICGI)

CONSTITUTION

Article I

Name and Legal Identity

1. The name of an organization designated The International Cotton Genome Initiative, also known by the acronym ICGI, is hereby created as a global affinity group with common goals and interests.
2. The identifying logos for the ICGI are shown below.

Article II

Mission Statement

1. The ICGI is organized exclusively for scientific and educational purposes and shall remain a non-profit entity. To encourage and promote scientific endeavors across disciplines in the field of cotton research, the mission of the organization is two-fold:
 - (a) To increase knowledge of the structure and function of the cotton genome¹ for the benefit of the global community
 - (b) To facilitate i) Global communication, collaboration, and education; ii) Knowledge and resource integration; iii) Technology and resource development; & iv) Coordinated research planning

Article III

Organization and Governance

1. To effectively fulfill the mission as stated in Article II, the ICGI is organized into five discipline-based Workgroups and governed by an Executive Steering Committee.
2. The Workgroups are as follows: (a) Structural Genomics, (b) Functional Genomics, (c) Germplasm and Genetic Stocks, (d) Comparative Genomics and Bioinformatics, (e) Breeding and Applied Genomics.

Article IV

Membership

1. Membership in the ICGI is open to all individuals with a professional interest in cotton genomics, or to any person or organization philosophically aligned with the stated purposes of the ICGI.
2. Organizations or individuals wishing to support the ICGI, but not to participate as active voting members, may do so as patrons or sustaining members.
3. New members may apply on-line at any time via the ICGI's web page. To join the organization, access the ICGI website recruitment page (https://www.cottongen.org/icgi/become_a_member) and submit a completed new membership form to the ICGI Website/Membership Coordinator.
4. The ICGI Executive Steering Committee has authority to establish an annual dues payment to be an active, voting member of ICGI. The amount will be determined by a majority vote of the ICGI Executive Steering Committee. A change in this policy would be subject to revision of the Constitution as specified in Article VIII.
5. ICGI members can associate with as many workgroups as they deem personally relevant, but must indicate a primary workgroup that is most closely aligned with the member's research interests.
6. The membership list is maintained and updated by ICGI's Website/Membership Coordinator and will be accessible at the ICGI website.
7. The membership list is maintained, updated, and verified (by December 31 annually) by ICGI's Website/Membership Coordinator and will be accessible at the ICGI website.
8. Membership entitles all individual members (regardless of Professional status) to the right to vote in all elections. Eligibility to be nominated for and to be elected an ICGI officer is limited to "Professional" members as defined in Article VII.

Article V

ICGI Activities

1. ICGI will sponsor a biennial international research conference, to be held at any time or place as determined by the Executive Steering Committee that does not conflict with the U.S. Beltwide Cotton Research Conferences, the International Plant and Animal Genome Conferences, or the World Cotton Congresses.

2. The ICGI will maintain a website and listserve to disseminate information to the cotton genomics community.
3. To support its activities, the ICGI will solicit funds from industry sponsors and government agencies. The conditions under which these funds are collected, handled, and dispersed will be governed in accordance to the ICGI Constitution and By-Laws, and overseen by the Executive Steering Committee.

Article VI

ICGI Structure and Officers

1. The ICGI structure will comprise (a) the ICGI Officers, (b) three Standing Committees, and (c) the five discipline-based Workgroups.
2. The Officers of the ICGI will consist of (a) the ICGI Chair and Co-chair, (b) the Workgroup Chairs and Co-chairs, (c) a Secretary/Treasurer, (d) a Website/Membership Coordinator, & (e) the Chair of the ICGI Advisory Committee.
3. The composition of three Standing Committees will be as follows:
 - (a) The Executive Steering Committee comprises the ICGI Chair and Co-Chair, the Workgroup Chairs and Co-Chairs, the Secretary/Treasurer (ex officio), the Website/Membership Coordinator (ex officio), and the Chair of the Advisory Committee (ex officio). Voting members are elected by the membership at large; ex officio members are appointed.
 - (b) The ICGI Biennial Research Conference Committee comprises the ICGI Chair and Co-Chair, the Workgroup Chairs, the Website/Membership Coordinator, the Secretary/Treasurer, the Advisory Committee Chair, and the Chair and Co-Chair of the Local Organizing Committee.
 - (c) The Advisory Committee comprises Industry Representatives who want to represent their employers' interests in the ICGI.
4. Each of the five Discipline-based Workgroups (Article III) will be led by a Chair and Co-chair.

Article VII

Election and Appointment of Officers

1. Nominations and elections for the ICGI and Workgroup Co-Chairs will be held biennially. Any "Professional" member of the ICGI is eligible to serve as an officer. A "Professional" is deemed to be an individual holding an academic or governmental scientific research position. Individuals actively engaged in obtaining an academic degree or employed by a for-profit company are not eligible to serve as ICGI officers.

- (a) The ICGI Steering Committee via the Chair will circulate a call for nominations by email to the members in January. The ICGI Chair will confirm the nominees' eligibility and willingness to serve before posting the ballots. In consultation with the Co-Chair, the ICGI Chair will select up to three nominees to list on the official ballot for each position.
 - (b) Elections will be conducted by on-line ballots. The list of nominations will be posted on the ICGI website and distributed by email to the members by 1 February.
 - (c) ICGI members can be nominated for only one position per election, but in successive elections can be nominated for positions other than the one they currently hold. While it will be possible to hold Chair and Co-chair positions simultaneously, no single individual can be Chair of ICGI and of a Workgroup or Chair of two different Workgroups simultaneously.
 - (d) The Website/Membership Coordinator will set up a page on the ICGI Website where the membership at large can vote.
 - (e) Voting will commence 1 February and close 1 March. The Chair will send reminder notices to the members 14 and 7 days before the end the voting period.
 - (f) The election is determined to be valid when 50% of the membership has voted. In the event that less than 50% of the membership has voted by 1 March, the voting will be extended by two weeks. At the end of this additional period, the election will be declared valid.
 - (g) At the end of the voting period, the Website/Membership Coordinator will communicate the results to the Steering Committee for ratification. The nominee with the greatest number of votes in each category will be deemed to be elected. Once the results have been ratified by the Executive Steering Committee, the results will be communicated to the members by email and posted on the ICGI website.
2. Elected officers will serve four year terms. Each officer will serve as Co-chair of ICGI or their Workgroup for two years. After two years, each Co-chair will be elevated to Chair.
- (a) If a Chair cannot complete their designated term, their Co-chair will assume the Chair for the remainder of Chair's term and for the entirety of their anticipated term as Chair subject to eligibility under Article VII.1. (c). A new Co-chair will be elected on an ad hoc basis (organized by the ICGI Chair). If the Co-chair is not eligible to assume the role of Chair under Article VII.1. (c), a new Chair will be elected on an ad hoc basis (organized by the ICGI Chair).
 - (b) If a Co-chair cannot complete their designated term, a new Co-chair will be elected on an ad hoc basis to complete the term of the former Co-chair followed by elevation to Chair (organized by the ICGI Chair) subject to eligibility under Article VII.1. (c).
3. The Secretary/Treasurer and Website/Membership Coordinator will be appointed, not elected. Members with the requisite skills and resources will be recruited by the ICGI chair and appointed, subject to ratification by a majority of the Steering Committee. The Secretary/Treasurer and Website/Membership Coordinator will serve as long as they are willing, subject to a biennial confirmation by the Executive Steering Committee.

4. Advisory Committee comprises Industry Representatives who volunteer to participate in the ICGI as industry representatives.
 - (a) In conjunction with the ICGI elections, the ICGI chair will solicit relevant industry participation in the Advisory Committee.
 - (b) The Advisory Committee will comprise a maximum of five individuals.
 - (c) The Advisory Committee positions will be confirmed by the Executive Steering Committee in March of each biennium after the election of the new officers has been ratified.
 - (d) Advisory Committee positions are for two years, but recurrent terms are possible, subject to reconfirmation by the Executive Steering Committee.
 - (e) The Chair of the Advisory Committee will be determined by a biennial vote of the Advisory Committee immediately following ratification of the members of the Advisory Committee.

Article VIII

Amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws

1. Changes to any or all articles in the ICGI Constitution or By-Laws can be effected as follows.
 - (a) Amendments to the Constitution or By-Laws will be considered biennially in conjunction with ICGI officer elections.
 - (b) Proposals for amendments to the Constitution or By-Laws will be solicited by the ICGI Chair in conjunction with the call for nominations for ICGI Officers.
 - (c) Proposals will be reviewed by the Executive Steering Committee, and if approved by a majority vote, the proposed amendment(s) will be put to a vote by the membership at large.
 - (d) Constitution and By-Law additions and amendments will be determined to be resolved when 50% of the membership has voted. In the event that less than 50% of the membership has voted by 1 March, the voting will be extended by two weeks. At the end of this additional period, the election will be deemed to be valid and the amendments resolved.
 - (e) At the end of the voting period, the Website/Membership Coordinator will communicate the results to the Executive Steering Committee for ratification. Constitution and By-Law amendments will be considered approved if they are approved by 67% of the votes cast in a valid election. Once the results have been ratified by the Steering Committee, the results will be communicated to the members by email and posted on the ICGI website.

2. All procedures and policies not explicitly detailed in the ICGI Constitution and By-Laws will be resolved by a majority vote of the Executive Steering Committee until such time as the relevant amendments can be drafted and ratified.
